Krazy Kat puts his children to sleep and while rocking them, he falls asleep too. His wife comes in and bawls him out for not keeping up the rocking. He gives up the job and goes into another room and tries to fall asleep.

The children awake and start to play in Krazy Kat's room. They have tin cans, pails, drums and other noisy toys. Krazy Kat sees that sleep at home is out of the question so he goes out into the woods. He falls asleep under a tree and a bough falls on his head. He tries again and a bird alights on his nose. So he gives that up. He passes a store and sees an ad. for someone to demonstrate sleeping in a comfortable bed so he takes the job.

In the meantime his wife has been looking for him. She passes the store and sees the crowd around the window. She looks in and there is Krazy Kat fast asleep. She drags him out and finally socks him to sleep.
